NO BLOOD FOR OIL!

This drop symbolises the blood
spilt to satisfy British Petroleum (BP)'s 80-year thirst for oil.

After the First World War Britain promised Arab independence to reward the ousting off Turkey.
Instead Britain burnt villages, bombed towns and rigged
the vote – 96 % for their man – sound familiar?

BP was the main beneficiary:

BP's proposed Baku – Ceyhan pipeline crossing southern Turkey
will require a continuous militarised corridor that would escalate
the already heightened tensions between Turkey and Kurdish groups. 4 million people have been displaced by previous war.

Britain is involved in the War on Iraq to regain control of the area
alongside American oil, corporate and military interests.

Thousands of Iraqis including civilians have been killed or maimed. They add to the hundreds of thousands who have died of hunger and sickness caused by the economic blockade enforced since 1991.

British, US & Australian Troops OUT of Iraq NOW!!
